CLARKE COUNTY.

A CENSORIOUS SCRIBBLER. Albion W. Tourgee severely criticises of out-door sports. The association might, for all Mr. Tourgee's censure, have done far worse than engage in heathful out-door sports. Its members might, for example, have devoted their intellectual faculties to reviving the sectional animosities which should have died with the close of the civil war. Harrison Kelley, congressman-elect from Kansas, followed that chute on the day hamed, in the presence of a mixed audities at Fort Worth. Ark Harrison Kelley, congressman-elect from Kansas, followed that chute on the day named, in the presence of a mixed audience at Fort Worth, Ark., without incurring the wrath of Mr. Tourgee, although the citizens of Fort Worth, without regard to party or previous sectional affilations, publicly condemned him for affilations, publicly condemned him for abusing the invitation of a non-partisan association such as the Grand Army of the Republic professes to be by making an offensively partisan address. abusing the invitation of a non-partisan an offensively partisan address.

It appears as though Mr. Tourgee had gone out of his way to "take a fall" out all afflicted with scrofula. Two died early; of the Young Men's Christian associations. The 112th Anniversary or American Independence will be Celebrated at Helena, on

The eventful day itself always affords the occasion of a grand demonstration, but supplemented as the day will be by the assembling of the members of the Constitutional Convention that is to form the fundamental laws of the State, probably for a century, will add a significant feature to the anniversary that can never occur again. On the Feurth of July, 1889, the people will assemble at Helena as lawmakers, patriots and citizens to bid farewell to Territorial bondage and join in a general thanksgiving and rejoicing over another year's existence that shall see forty-two stars emblazoned upon the azure field of the grand old flag.
